SUBJECT: Felicitations to King on Recovery from Illness

Seated next to the King at the banquet at Amirate on May 25, 1958, I said that all his friends in the United States, including the Secretary of State, took satisfaction in his recovery from his illness. He replied, through his interpreter, Abdullah Tubaishi, that he thanked the President, whom I had not mentioned, and the Secretary for their kind thoughts.

According to Radio Mecca, the King received from outside the Kingdom messages during his illness from King Hussain of Jordan, King Faisal of Iraq, the Ruler of Qatar, the Ruler of Bahrein and the Imam of Yemen.
